FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

INNOVA CEO CRISTÓBAL RUGAMA KILLED IN FATAL CAR ACCIDENT

Mexico City, April 15, 2002 — Mr. Cristóbal Rugama, CEO of Innova, S. de R.L. de C.V., died yesterday in a car accident, the Company announced today with deep regret.

"We are extremely saddened by the death of our good friend and colleague. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends as we mourn this tragic loss," said Emilio Azcárraga Jean, Chairman and CEO of Grupo Televisa. "Cristóbal was a valued member of the Grupo Televisa family since he joined our management team in 1998. He was an inspiration to everyone who worked with him and he will be greatly missed."

K. Rupert Murdoch, Chairman and Chief Executive of News Corp., said, "Cristobal did a terrific job leading Innova. He was a good friend and will be missed by all of us at News Corp."

Innova, S. de R.L. de C.V., the pay-TV market leader in Mexico, providing direct-to-home (DTH) satellite television services under the SKY brand name, is a joint venture indirectly owned by Grupo Televisa, S.A., The News Corporation Limited, a South Australia corporation, and Liberty Media International Inc., a Delaware corporation (formerly known as Tele-Communications International, Inc.).

Televisa is the leading television broadcaster in Mexico that produces and owns the largest library of Spanish-language television programming in the world. News Corporation is a diversified international communications company with operations in the United States, Canada, continental Europe, the United Kingdom, Australia, Latin America and the Pacific Basin that include the production of motion pictures and television programming; television, satellite and cable broadcasting; the publication of newspapers, magazines and books; the production and distribution of promotional and advertising products and services; the development of digital broadcasting; the development of conditional access and subscriber management systems; and the creation and distribution of on-line programming. Liberty Media International owns and operates broadband cable television and telephony distribution networks and is a provider of diversified programming services in Europe, Latin America and Asia.

The News Corporation Limited (NYSE: NWS, NWS.A; ASX: NCP, NCPDP; LSE: NEWCP) is one of the world's largest media companies with total assets as of December 31, 2001 of approximately US$47 billion and total annual revenues of approximately US$14 billion. News Corporation's diversified global operations in the United States, Canada, continental Europe, the United Kingdom, Australia, Latin America and the Pacific Basin include the production and distribution of motion pictures and television programming; television, satellite and cable broadcasting; the publication of newspapers, magazines and books; the production and distribution of promotional and advertising products and services; the development of digital broadcasting; the development of conditional access and subscriber management systems; and the creation and distribution of popular on-line programming.
